July 7 NEIL SEDAKA

The history of Rock 'n' Roll would be incomplete without the innumerable contributions of Neil Sedaka. For over fifty years, Neil has written, performed, produced, and inspired countless songs, and his canon of compositions will continue to stand the test of time. Sedaka recorded chart toppers "Laughter in the Rain," "Love Will Keep Us Together," "Oh! Carol," "Stairway to Heaven," "Calendar Girl," "Happy Birthday Sweet Sixteen," "Next Door To An Angel," and "Breaking Up Is Hard To Do."

July 21 STEVE MARCH TORMÉ

A Tribute to the Life and Music of Mel Tormé

Totally Tormé is a son's remarkable homage to his legendary father, Mel Tormé. This performance features classic music beloved by Mel's fans, including "Lulu's Back In Town," "Lover Come Back to Me," "The Way You Look Tonight," and Mel's own "Born to be Blue." Interspersed with engaging stories, this lively and loving tribute is thoroughly entertaining from the first measure to the last note. Bill Harris, Don Harris, Wally Barrett, Tim Herman, and Joe Meo, members of the Billy and the Showmen Band will be joining Mr. Torme, adding some "local" flavor.

July 28 BOWZER'S ROCK 'N' ROLL PARTY

Don't miss Bowzer's Rock 'n' Roll Party starring Kenny Vance & The Planotones, Bowzer & The Stingrays, Rocky & The Rollers and special guest Lynn DiMenna. Jon Bauman's portrayal of Bowzer, leader of Sha Na Na for fourteen years, was so convincing that the casual observer was certain this hilarious, gangly greaser actually stalked the streets of Brooklyn when he wasn't appearing with the group. Bowzer has resurfaced as one of the most multi-dimensional performers in show business today, with his Rock 'n' Roll Party. Joining Bowzer will be over fifty antique cars from the fifties and sixties exhibited around the park courtesy of the Gateway Antique Auto Club of Stamford.
